

This is the first year of testing the new national curriculum. It is therefore unrealistic to make a comparison to last year's result (as advised by DfE).

However as the graph indicates Chater Junior school has exceeded the national and Hertfordshire percentages for attainment.

The writing results ratified by the external moderator, are the highest the school has ever seen.